the ink on the treaties of rome of 25 march 1957 was hardly dry when the commission set itself up for business on 1 january 1958 in brussels with an agenda covering all areas of the economic life of the six founder countries germany france italy and the three benelux countries of belgium luxembourg and the netherlands the 15 year period from 1958 to 1972 covered by this work corresponds to the beginnings of the european commission whose first task was to come up with practical means of achieving the treaties main objective the establishment of a common market taking as its point of departure the general interest of the entire community of six member states forged by men and women with often very different backgrounds the history of the first few years is one of crises but also of achievements which shaped the major milestones of european integration in almost every area imagination long term vision enthusiasm and tenacity seem to have been the great virtues of the people working for the young european institution at that time by piecing together over a number of years the recollections of former commission officials a consortium of university teachers under the direction of professor michel dumoulin of the catholic university of the book claims that the united states and the soviet union attained the mastery of the international order by projecting universalist values that responded to the particularist markers of the domestic order that was generated in the 1950s the geopolitical orientation adopted by the superpowers in the 1950s was shaped by the way in which their societies developed politically socially and economically in the 1950s the main argument of this book is that the quest for the mastery of the international order that informed superpower relations in the 1950s was guided by the need to respond to the local circumstances that emerged in the united states and the soviet union the particularist markers that arose in the 1950s led to the establishment of a geopolitical project underpinned by certain universalist values that could be applied in order to build the superpowers sphere of influence
