no soldier could ask for a sweeter resting place than on the field of glory where he fell the land he died to save vies with the one which gave him birth in paying tribute to his memory and the kindly hands which so often come to spread flowers upon his earthly coverlet express in their gentle task a personal affection general john j pershing to remember and honor the memory of the american soldiers who fought and died in foreign wars during the past hundred years the american battle monuments commission abmc was established since the agency was founded in 1923 its sole purpose has been to commemorate the soldiers service and the causes for which their lives were given the twenty five overseas cemeteries honoring 139 000 combat dead and the memorials honoring the 60 314 fallen soldiers with no known graves are among the most beautiful and meticulously maintained shrines in the world in the first comprehensive study of the abmc thomas h conner traces how the agency came to be created by congress in the aftermath of world war i how the cemeteries and monuments the agency built were designed and their locations chosen and how the commemorative sites have become important outposts of remembrance on foreign soil war and remembrance powerfully demonstrates that these monuments living sites that embody the role americans played in the defense of freedom far from their own shores assist in understanding the interconnections of memory and history and serve as an inspiration to later generations explores the relationship between unexpected events in narrative and life focusing on surprise spontaneous eruption and the unforeseeable the unexpected argues that stories help us to reconcile what we expect with what we experience though narrative is often understood a recapitulation of past events the book argues that the unexpected and the future anterior a future that is already complete are guiding ideas for new understandings of the reading process it also points beyond that to some of the key temporal concepts of our epoch of unpredictability the event the untimely and the messianic the unexpected is an important intervention in narratology and a striking general argument about the cultural significance of surprise the enquiry is developed by a range of new readings in philosophy and theory as well as of sarah waters s fingersmith kazuo ishiguro s never let me go and julian barnes s the sense of an ending key features an original discussion of the relation of time and narrative an important intervention in narratology a striking general argument about the workings of the mind provides an overview of the question of surprise in philosophy and literature
